September 2015

We, the members of DACU, people of diverse faiths and beliefs, are united by our belief in God, our concerns for justice and our call to serve others. Through prayerful dependence on God and respectful cooperation with each other, we will make a difference in our world by fostering an awareness and understanding of human need. We will be a supportive presence in this community and beyond through the generous sharing of our time, talents, and resources. Mission Statement adopted 10/22/1996.

Dubuque Food Pantry

Thank you to all who continue to support the Food Pantry with monetary donations and food collections. We also wish to thank everyone that has dropped off garden produce. We have given out lots of cucumbers, onions, rhubarb, etc... The tomatoes, potatoes and apples are starting to arrive. So if you have extra produce we would be very glad to accept it.

We will be contacting you in October about preparing Christmas baskets. The Pantry hopes your church/congregation will be able to help us.

Does your church/congregation want to know what we could use? Each month I will be listing a few items that we could use so you can plan ahead and get the list in your church bulletin/announcements.

September – Sugar, mac & cheese, tuna, oil, potatoes of any kind, laundry soap, dish soap, garden produce

October—Canned fruit, soup, coffee, hot chocolate, jelly, salt, pepper, paper towels, shampoo

Drop off hours are: Mon., Wed., Fri. from 9:00a.m. to 3:30p.m. and Tues. 9:00-11:45a.m.

God bless you and thank you for your continued support.

St. Elias the Prophet Church

UPDATE ON ST. ELIAS

Earlier this summer St. Elias Church was ready to begin emergency construction on its roof, but then they discovered that their walls were not structurally sound. This means that in addition to rebuilding the roof, they now have to reinforce the walls. Unfortunately, insurance will not cover all of this, so St. Elias has started an emergency funds campaign on Kickstarter. We are asking for area congregations to please advertise the link and help in any way they can.

To donate, please go to www.kickstarter.com and search for "St. Elias Dubuque."

Thank you!

Operation New View

Andrew Connolly Make a Difference Day October 24, 2015

We will focus on assisting senior citizens, handicapped, veterans and others with a helping hand. Services may include light duty chores around the home, yard work projects, socializing and planning games with homebound seniors, simple repairs, and weatherization activities such as new furnace filters, applying window plastic or caulking. If you know of someone who needs these services you can call Amanda Hohmann of Operation New View at 563.556.5130 ext. 14. A team will inspect all homes and make final determinations for qualification. Deadline for requests is September 14.

Climate & Peace, Monday,
Sept. 21, 2015, 7:00 pm, Alumni
Campus Center Ballroom, Loras

In our sixth year, our 2015 focus is on how climate disruption impacts peace issues such as violent conflict, refugees and resource allocation in anticipation of the United Nations Climate Change Conference in Paris in early December. Dr. Reese Halter is an award-winning conservation communicator: voice for ecology, distinguished conservation biologist, broadcaster, public speaker, best-selling author, and syndicated writer. He knew from the time he was a child that he wanted to be an Earth Doctor and has university degrees in Physical Geography, Forest Resources and a PhD in eco-stress tree physiology from The University of Melbourne Australia. In the 1980s, Dr. Reese founded Global Forest Science, a conservation institute. Through Global Forest Science, he has built an international reputation for initiating meaningful research designed to protect natural resources for future generations. Dr. Reese visits schools and encourages children around the globe to embrace conservation, science exploration, and learning.

Now in our 5th year

Children of Abraham

2015 - 2016

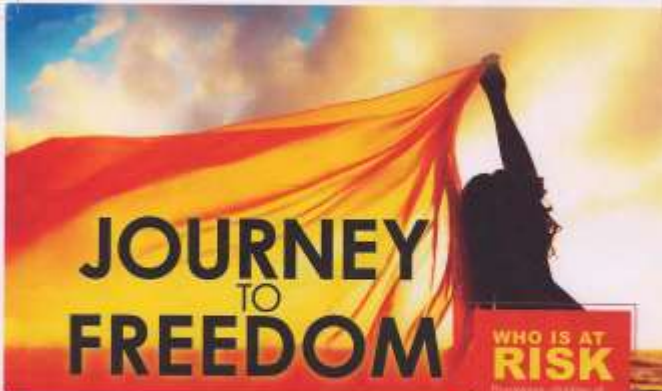

Children of Abraham creates an atmosphere of civil life that builds inter-religious solidarity, cooperation and friendship. It does so through regular monthly topical conversations, service, activities, education outreach, and expressions of intercultural hospitality in sacred spaces. Round table discussions and a snack. What could be better?

JOURNEY TO FREEDOM

SEPT 25th - OCT 5th
700 LOCUST ST.
Lobby of Roshek Building

Exhibit Opening Sept. 25th / 7 pm with keynote address by:
Teresa Downing-Matibag, Executive Director of the Network Against Human Trafficking

JOURNEY TO FREEDOM is a walk-through exhibit that highlights how human trafficking is active within our local community. The display tells the story of Iowans who have been trafficked for sexual favors. Through photos, words, and displays, you will learn the terrible tragedies in the lives of some people. You will also learn steps you might take to prevent persons from being victimized.

WHO IS AT RISK
Human trafficking is one of the most serious human rights violations in the world. It is a global problem that affects millions of people. Victims are often women and children who are forced into sexual exploitation. They are often sold into slavery and are treated as property. They are often forced to work in dangerous and unhealthy conditions. They are often forced to work long hours for very little pay. They are often forced to work in isolation and are often threatened with violence if they try to escape.

EVERY 30 SECONDS
another person is forced into human trafficking.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

1. Be aware. If you see something that looks like human trafficking, call the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888.
2. Educate yourself.
3. Advocate for your community. Let your voice be heard.
4. Play your part in ending human trafficking.

SPONSORING ORGANIZATIONS:
CHILDREN OF ABRAHAM DACU - DUBUQUE AREA CONGREGATIONS UNITED DUBUQUE COALITION FOR NON-VIOLENCE DUBUQUE INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE

Temple Beth El

Temple Beth El will celebrate Sukkot on Tuesday, September 29, starting at 5 PM, by inviting the members of Children of Abraham and the DACU community to join with us in the construction, decoration and celebration (with dinner) of this Jewish holiday.

Last year was the first time in a long time that our congregation celebrated Sukkot, and we had a great time. Jews, Christians and Muslims building and decorating followed by, what else, eating. Sukkot always begins on the 15th day of Tishrei (the 5th day after the most solemn of Jewish holy days, Yom Kippur). But by contrast, Sukkot is unreservedly joyful. We will be celebrating it together as a community. Children and adults. Bring a hammer (or not) but come join the fun. The Sukkah is a temporary structure built during the Jewish festival of Sukkot to commemorate the 40 years that Jews spent wandering the desert (Biblical times). It is a symbolic wilderness shelter, symbolizing both the frailty and transience of life and God's presence always in our lives. Most of us live in houses or apartments built by others. Most of us eat bread baked by professionals. Sukkah-building gives us the chance to enjoy the fruits of our own labor, decorated with harvest-time crops. It shouldn't be an elegant structure (don't worry, it won't be); it should be a rough shack built by many hands. This will be a joyous joint activity. We'll have flowers, branches, corn stalks, fruits, and vegetables – all sorts of Fall Harvest symbols to decorate the Sukkah. The temporary nature of the structure is part of the tradition; it is important to have walls but also to see the sky thru the roof. Please plan to come at 5pm to help build and decorate the Sukkah – adults and children are all very welcome. At 6pm, we'll have a short (10 minute) service in the Sukkah after which we'll proceed to the Temple's Social Hall to share a meal together. Participants are asked to bring a dish to share. In order to ensure that we keep kosher, please do not bring any meat. We request that each family/person bring a non-meat (a dairy dish or fruit dish) to share with 5 people. Or, if you don't have time to bring/prepare anything, just plan to come, participate and eat. Simple, really. We'll have drinks and dessert for all. This is a time for laughing, praying, sharing and thanking. For more information contact Alan Garfield at agarfield@dbq.edu.
