Dubuque Rescue Mission

Coretta Scott King wrote: "Take courage friends, the way is often hard, the path is never clear, and the stakes are very high. Take courage for deep down there is a greater truth, you are not alone."

The work of Rev. Rick Mimh continues to inspire me in the way he treats the people who come for housing, food and shelter. Rick truly puts his faith in action. Everyone that comes in the door is treated with respect, compassion and loving kindness. If your congregation has not provided a meal at the Mission, worked to prepare and serve a meal I highly encourage this. You will soon know how much it costs, but also the folks that come for good. It can be quite enlightening.

Rick in his loving and kind way helps to find housing, employment for the men. He continues to inspire me! If you can, Google Community Test Village in Austin Texas and watch a short video regarding their 51 acre village for the homeless. This is a project Rick is currently investigating that could happen. Our thank offering this month is going to NAACP to provide turkeys to those who are needy. We were part of this last year.

We did not have a Board meeting in October but had a dinner to thank the volunteers and board members for their loving and kind participation. Over 100 people attended.

LED BY JADE ANGELICA, MDiv, DMin
SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR AND CENTERING PRAYER PRACTITIONER

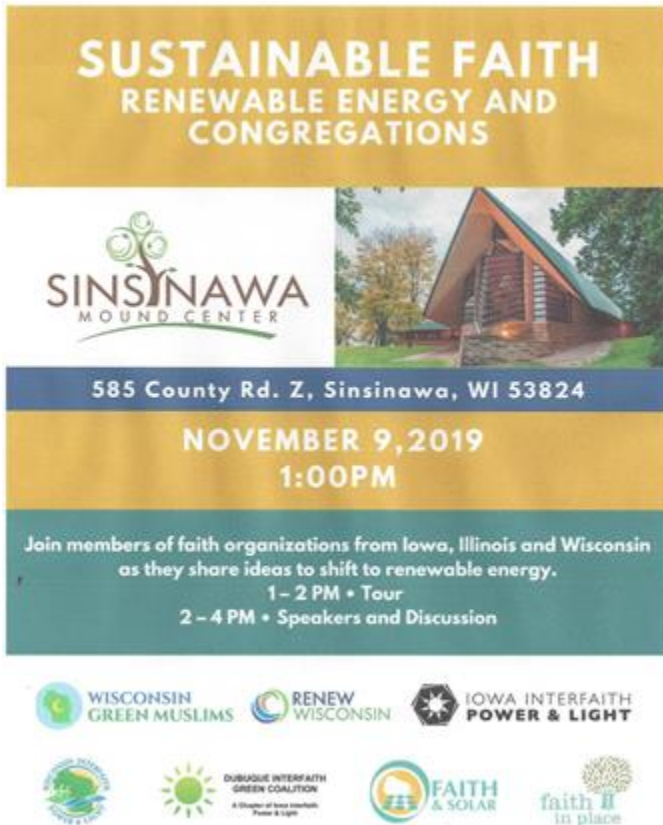

This meditative practice is called "Centering Prayer" in response to Thomas Merton's description of contemplative prayer as prayer that is "centered entirely on the presence of God."

"The root of prayer is interior silence. We may think of prayer as thoughts or feelings expressed in words. But this is only one expression. Deep prayer is the laying aside of thoughts. It is the opening of mind and heart, body and feelings -- our whole being -- to God, the Ultimate Mystery, beyond words, thoughts and emotions." (OM, 136)
~from <http://www.centeringprayer.org>

For more information, contact Jade Angelica: jadeangelica@gmail.com or 563-582-4724; or contact Nikki Ketchum at First Congregational: 563-582-3648.
